Edwin Coe LLP is proud to sponsor the INSOL Europe Academic Forum

Our Restructuring and Insolvency partners are highly recommended in Chambers UK 2022. We advise corporates, funders and office holders on all aspects of corporate restructuring and personal insolvency, in addition to the traditional collective insolvency procedures: bankruptcy, administration and liquidation.

Edwin Coe has always been at the forefront of a developing cross-border legal landscape. We have helped our clients navigate in turn the Cross Border Insolvency Regulation, the Recast Regulation, and the Transition phase into the current legal relationship between the UK and our European friends and trading partners. The Edwin Coe team continues to pick a path no matter the shift in the ground beneath our feet.

Dear Colleagues and Friends

It is with great excitement that I present to you the programme of the INSOL Europe Academic Conference to be held in Dublin on 2 and 3 March 2022.

When the Academic Forum last met in Copenhagen in October 2019, little did we know that it will take more than two years for us to reunite. As we all know now, those two years were unlike anything any of us has seen or lived through, both personally and professionally.

In the latter context, our bread-and-butter tools of insolvency law have unprecedentedly been "switched off" across Europe for a good part of 2020. And contrary to common wisdom, the follow-up wave of restructurings and insolvencies widely expected as the result of the pandemic simply did not arrive in 2021.

Yet legal development did not stop: the pandemic did not switch-off the clock measuring the time to the 2022 deadline for the implementation of the European Restructuring Directive. Nor did it prevent European academics from applying their minds to that topic and other questions in our field of enquiry. Quite the contrary. Our call for papers for the Dublin conference met with an overwhelmingly positive response, resulting in the INSOL Europe Academic Forum Board selecting from close to 30 very thoughtful paper proposals. We are very thankful to all authors who have replied to the call.

The selection that we proudly present to you here testifies to the breadth and depth of insolvency and restructuring research conducted in Europe today, and to the unique role which our Academic Forum plays in giving that research an outlet. A brief look at our programme should leave no one in doubt that the INSOL Europe Academic Forum is where cutting-edge insolvency and restructuring research is presented and debated, in a way that is relevant not only to academics but to lawyers and others practicing in the field as well.

We hope that you will agree and come and join us in Dublin in March.

Chair,
