

CALL FOR PAPERS

FLORENCE SEMINAR ON STANDARD-ESSENTIAL PATENTS

EUI Campus, 6 - 7 October 2022

The European University Institute (EUI) jointly with the Max-Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition (MPI-IC) invite submissions to their scientific seminar on 'Standard-Essential Patents' to be held in Florence at the EUI Campus on 6-7 October 2022. The Seminar takes place within the Florence Competition Program (FCP) and the ongoing project 'Innovation and Intellectual Property in the Digital Age' of the Florence School of Regulation - Communications & Media Area (FSR C&M).

We seek unpublished papers from lawyers and economists on the licensing and litigation of SEPs both theoretically and empirically oriented. The goal of the Florence Seminar on Standard-Essential Patents is to stimulate an in-depth discussion of the selected academic papers with particular emphasis on the societal impact of the research findings.

Suggested areas comprise:

- FRAND royalty rate calculation;
- Multi-party SEP licensing solutions;
- Patent exhaustion and the level of licensing;
- SEP infringement remedies;
- Jurisdictional issues of SEP disputes;
- FRAND ADRs;
- Antitrust issues of SEP licensing and litigation.

KEYNOTE

Michael A. Carrier is Distinguished Professor at Rutgers Law School, where he specializes in antitrust and IP law. He is co-author of the leading IP/antitrust treatise, IP and Antitrust Law: An Analysis of Antitrust Principles Applied to Intellectual Property Law, the author of Innovation for the 21st Century: Harnessing the Power of Intellectual Property and Antitrust Law, and the editor of Critical Concepts in Intellectual Property Law: Competition. He has published extensively including on the patent and competition law issues posed by standard-essential patents.

Michael Carrier
Rutgers Law School

SUBMISSION

Please submit extended abstracts or full papers by 31 May 2022 to the following button.

Acceptance notifications will be sent by mid-June 2022. Final paper versions of the selected submissions are due by 18 September 2022.

SUBMIT

INFORMATION AND CONTACTS BOX

For further information about submissions and the programme please contact niccolo.galli@eui.eu

For information about accommodation facilities and logistics issues, please write to

Elisabetta Spagnoli at compreg.secretariat@eui.eu

WEBPAGE

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Marco Botta | EUI

Ginevra Bruzzone | Luiss School of European Political Economy

Beatriz Conde Gallego | MPI-IC

Josef Drexl | MPI-IC

Lapo Filistrucchi | EUI - University of Florence

Igor Nikolic | EUI

Pier Luigi Parcu | EUI

Nicolas Petit | EUI

Maria Alessandra Rossi | University of Chieti Pescara

COST

The cost of participating in the seminar is EUR 150. Participants bear their travel and accommodation costs.

LOCATION

Teatro at Badia Fiesolana, European University Institute,
Via dei Roccettini 9, San Domenico di Fiesole, Florence, Italy.