

Rome, 13th March, 2026 at 10 a.m.

Faculty of Law

Reading Room of the Institutes of Comparative Law and International Law

Copyright and AI: new proposals and recent reforms at EU and national level

Welcome addresses

Luisa Avitabile, Dean of the Faculty

Mirzia Bianca, Head of the Department

Alessandro Somma, Director of the PhD Course

Speakers

Christophe Geiger, Luiss, Rome

Is there a way towards EU digital emancipation? Proposals for boosting innovation while safeguarding creators' interests in copyright law in the GenAI area

Marilena Filippelli, Sapienza University of Rome

The protection of AI-generated works under the new Italian rules

Carlo Meo, Ca' Foscari University, Venice

Copyright and AI training under the new Italian rules

Opening remarks and discussion lead

Giuliana Scognamiglio, Sapienza University of Rome

Participation is free. All interested people are welcome to attend